WOOD THRUSH

A beautiful song, serenely suggesting bells and flutes, floats through the woods at dawn and dusk during spring at WoodsEdge. The singer, the Wood Thrush, has a rust-colored head and back, large spots on his snowy breast and is smaller than his cousin, the robin.

Standard Features

- 2,126 square feet
- 2 bedrooms
- 2 baths
- Den
- Walk-in master closet
- Raised ceiling and gas fireplace in open living room
- Covered porch
- 2-car garage

Additional Options

- Basement
- Loft
- Sunroom
- Green living package
- Exterior cultured stone
- Extended master suite
- Interior & exterior customization
06/2011 Floor plans subject to change without notice.